Carr Manufacturing Company (CMC) has announced today their move towards ISO certification. "Becoming ISO compliant is the initial phase of achieving ISO 9001 certification" states Greg Carraway, CMC Chief Operating Officer. CMC expects to be ISO compliant prior to June of this year and with a goal of being ISO Certified by the December 1st, 2011

About CMC.

CMC is a California based corporation specializing in the design and manufacturing of standard and custom assemblies to the electronic, industrial, medical, and military industries. Its unique approach to contract manufacturing allows OEM's to offload their electro-mechanical assembly and to focus on their core product. Headquartered in Foothill Ranch, Calif., CMC has over 20 years of combined experience in designing, manufacturing, and supplying various electro-mechanical assembly solutions to the OEM market.
